PetQuip Information Stand No D42

8 March 2007

UK showcases latest pet products on British information stand

French and other international buyers will have the opportunity to view some of the latest UK pet products from 14 companies that are displaying their brochures and product samples on the information stand organised by UK trade association PetQuip (stand D42) at Expozoo. PetQuip, the International Trade Association of Pet Equipment Suppliers, will also have export advisors on the stand to introduce buyers to thousands of other UK-sourced pet related products. The association's product sourcing service is free-of-charge to overseas buyers.

Among the latest developments shown on the stand are several new animal, bird and fish food varieties, fashionable pet clothing and accessories, training aids and grooming products.

The British companies represented on stand D42 are:

Blond Dog Ltd – a combination locking anti-theft dog lead, to securely tether dogs when left unattended.

The Bramton Company – 'Simple Solution' hygiene and grooming products including a 'Pee Post' that trains pets where to urinate.

The Canny Company - a revolutionary dog collar that tackles the most common dog behaviour problem of lead pulling.

Cranswick Pet Products – foods for small animals, wild birds, pigeons, caged and aviary birds.

Doggy Things Ltd – stylish and fashionable dog accessories, including beds, clothing, collars and leads.

Dogmatic UK Ltd – the ‘Dogmatic Headcollar’, a patented training aid, plus a range of matching accessories.

Fabulous Creatures Ltd – organic and botanical shampoos, coat dressings and skincare for dogs and horses.

Fish4Dogs Ltd – pet treats and foods made from fish with no additives or preservatives.

Glee Petindex – the UK’s leading international pet trade exhibition for the pet, garden and leisure industries.

K9 by Igloo Designs - designer pet accessories including feeding bowls for dogs and cats.

Pharmavet Ltd – natural and herbal products to calm pets, provide allergy relief and improve mobility and skin condition.

Safe N Snug Ltd – top quality collars, harnesses, leads and toys designed to provide comfort and safety for dogs.

Scissal – contemporary range of pet dining tables produced from acrylic and stainless steel.

Small Life Supplies – see-through insect cages for stick insects, praying mantises and beetles.

PetQuip – the UK-based association that assists and promotes the development of international trade in the pet equipment sector. It is a division of The Federation of Garden and Leisure Manufacturers Ltd, the trade association that has been providing a comprehensive range of international business development services to British companies and overseas buyers in the garden and leisure sector for over 46 years. PetQuip provides a catalyst for business contact between manufacturers, suppliers and international buyers, and membership is open to manufacturers and suppliers of pet equipment anywhere in the world. The range of membership services offered by PetQuip includes organising British groups and information stands at exhibitions such as Expozoo, staging ‘meet the buyer’ events, arranging government support packages, providing international market research and international buyer database access, organising inward and outward buying missions, plus providing business support and advice from PetQuip's dedicated and experienced export team.
